Title: “Capturing the Next Generation”

1. Nebuchadnezzar wanted to capture the thinking, identity, worship, and lifestyle, of that generation of captured Jews. Christians living in America are, likewise, in danger of being “captured.” In what ways is America, the American dream, and American culture constantly trying to capture our . . .

- thinking?
- identity?
- worship?
- lifestyle?

2. Identifying the dangers of a culture that is constantly trying to capture our thinking, identity, worship, and lifestyle away from Christ is only step one. We must actively seek to follow Christ away from the lures of our culture.

- What did Daniel do to keep from being “captured” by Nebuchadnezzar?
- What are some concrete steps we can take to avoid being “captured” by American culture?

3. Brainstorm with your group some ways that you all can be involved in Pastor Peppy’s action points:

1. Pray for our church, youth, and children before every meal.
2. Consider volunteering to serve in our youth and children’s ministry.
