Title: "Courage Under Fire"

1. Daniel 3 teaches us that every generation will be forced to choose between God and the evil idols of their day.

- What are some of the idols we have erected in America? What are some of the idols we have erected in the south? What are some of the idols we have erected in Bible belt?
- Choosing God over the idol meant a death sentence for the three Hebrews. What are some of the consequences we might suffer in our day?

2. Daniel 3 teaches us that God will test each of us at some level to determine where our true allegiance lies.

- Why do you think God does that? Where else does the Bible teach that? What does that tell us about God?
- Can you think of a time when God tested you in this way? Share it with the group.

3. Daniel 3 teaches us that courage is the strength to do what's right when everyone else is doing what's wrong. Courage comes from believing that God is able.

- The Hebrews clearly believe that God is able to deliver them. How does God deliver his people? What does that teach us?
- Share with the group a time that God delivered you. Share that with the group.
