

CONNECT Group study questions for May 19, 2019

Title: "Keys to Spiritual Awakening"

1. The book of Jonah is an invitation for us to contemplate our spiritual lives, so let's do that, starting with this: Why do you attend a Connect Group? What role does the Connect Group play in your spiritual life?

2. We repent and seek spiritual awakening because we, like the people of Nineveh, hope in God's mercy. Name one time in the Bible and one time in your own life where God showed unexpected and undeserved mercy.

3. The life of the Christian is a life of daily repentance. What are some practical steps we can take to be more repentant in our lives? What does daily repentance look like?