Question #1: Does the Bible say that it is okay to be single?

Answer: Absolutely!

Four myths that many Christian singles have concerning marriage:

Myth #1: Marriage is the only God-ordained lifestyle.

Myth #2: The grass is greener on the other side of the matrimonial fence.

Myth #3: My life plus somebody else equals happiness.

Myth #4: Singleness produces loneliness, while marriage produces intimacy.

Question #2: What does the Bible have to say about dating?

Question #3: Is it okay to date or marry a non-Christian?

Question #4: What about "missionary dating?"

Question #5: What's wrong with premarital sex with someone you love?

The Greek word for sexual immorality is "porneia" from which we get the word pornography.

What was Paul referring to when he used the word "porneia"?

1. Fornication - premarital sex
2. Adultery - sex outside of your marriage
3. Homosexuality - unnatural sex with someone of the same sex
4. Bestiality - sex with an animal

Question #6: What can I do right now as a single person to make a difference for God?

1. Start living out your Christianity right now!
2. Use your singleness as a time to serve.
