

January 26, 2020

THE TERMS OF LOVE

Luke 10:25-37 (CSV)

RaShan Frost—currently doing a church planting residency at Radiant Church in North Charleston and is an adjunct professor of Christian Studies at Charleston Southern University

The way we define our neighbor redefines how we love God.

- In order to love God properly, we have to have a proper understanding of what it means to love our neighbor.
- True worship entails both the vertical relationship and horizontal relationship.

In this text, we see how we get to the place where we have to examine our own hearts in light of this dialogue:

The Question—Luke 10:25-36 (ESV)

The Answer—Luke 10:26-28 (ESB)

The Challenge—Luke 10:29-37 (ESV)

APPLICATION:

Romans 12:1 (CSB)

Zechariah 7:9-10 (ESV)

How do we humanize our neighbors who think differently than us or are of different ethnic, cultural, and economic groups than us?

What does your dinner table look like?

Who do you invite to your home?